

Sequel: Data Analytics

Provide business insights and support informed business decision-making

Sequel Data Analytics

Translate your data into powerful visualisations providing comprehensive performance analytics and invaluable insights into your business. Sequel Data Analytics supports London & Company Market insurers' operational and performance reporting requirements.

A panoramic view of your data

- Underwriting and claims performance management, trend analysis, broker benchmarking, pricing decisions and actuarial analysis
- Harness the full power of data to guide profitable and sustainable decision-making
- Solutions are tailored to your needs based on your data maturity level

A deeper view

Comprehensive dashboards

- Implementation includes gross and outwards reinsurance data model
- Out-of-the-box analytical tabular model and Microsoft Power BI dashboards
- Data in any view, ranging from granular policy-level data to high-level summaries

Optimising productivity

- Visual formats enable business leaders to identify patterns
- Dive into specific areas of interest with filtering and highlighting capabilities
- Translates data for analysing and interpreting
- Automate reporting and business processes to increase ROI

Enhanced features

- Underwriting and claims performance management, trend analysis, broker benchmarking, pricing decisions and actuarial analysis included
- Dynamic currency conversion
- Time-based analytical capabilities
- Master data management
- Gain competitive advantage through market insights
- Integration with key market systems